

HERE ARE A FEW VERY SPECIAL PIECES PRESENTED IN THE EXHIBITION

Assemblage of natural objects
Musée des Confluences, Lyon (France)

Yukinoshita dou samurai armour
from the Edo period.
Collection of Richard Béliveau

Lower molar of a Tetralophodon longirostris, a mastodon tooth.
15 cm x 22 cm x 12 cm
Musée des Confluences, Lyon (France)

A rare mounted specimen of a passenger pigeon. The species was hunted to such a great extent that it disappeared in 1914, when its last representative, named Martha, died at the Cincinnati Zoo.
13 cm x 38 cm x 23,5 cm
Musée de la nature et des sciences de Sherbrooke

Two Virginia deer whose antlers locked in battle, resulting in their deaths.

128 cm x 50 cm x 75 cm

Musée de la nature et des sciences de Sherbrooke

A teaching tool used to model the celestial sphere, this armillary sphere shows the apparent movement of the Sun and stars around the Earth.

Wood, metal, paint, paper

50 cm x 31 cm diameter

Musée de la civilisation, Québec City

This magnificent Victorian-era ornithological display case was built by the firm of Philippe Vallière, which specialized in high-end furniture, located in Québec City.

Sculpted black walnut, original glass

2.38 m x 1.13 m x 50 cm

Collections of Université Laval

Mummified cat from ancient Egypt.

13,2 cm x 3,7 cm x 3,8 cm

Musée des Confluences, Lyon (France)

Roman-era male head, an example of antiqua, objects dating back to Antiquity, which were quite present in early cabinets of curiosities.

Stone

20 cm x 13 cm x 17 cm

Collections of Université Laval

Decorated hornbill head from French Cochinchina, dating to the 19th century.

27 cm x 13 cm x 33 cm

Musée des Confluences, Lyon (France)

Amazonian doll associated with the Hixkaryana culture in Brazil.

Wood, parrot and heron feathers, resin, cotton, gourd

32 cm x 21 cm x 7,5 cm

Musée de la civilisation, Québec City

